

May 13, 1954

FIELD NOTES

Horse Creek
Mendocino Comity

Horse Creek is tributary to Rancheria Creek. This water was reported to Warden Nerton as being a very good steelhead spawning stream and native trout stream. However, in the last two years intensive logging operations have filled the creek with large deposits of shale. This has made the creek almost worthless for steelhead spawning. However, a few were noted this winter by Nerton.

WCJ:fo